Question:

Will you accept for subpoints 1 and 2 references for industrial facilities with office buildings or parts of buildings, residential buildings, and residential -commercial buildings?

Answer 1:

The Contracting Authority has defined the conditions of particular experience for participation in the public procurement procedure, having in mind the subject of the procurement, that is, the purpose of the facility to be built. As the Faculty of Organizational Sciences building will be an object intended for public use, the Contracting authority opted for references relating to facilities with public and commercial purposes. Bearing in mind the above, the Contracting authority will accept references for facilities that are composed from parts of different purposes that you mentioned, but it is necessary that the greater part of that particular facility, in terms of squares-total construction area (more than 50%), should be for public or commercial use. This applies to the both qualification criterias under the point b. Particular experience.
