Bid of the bidder NIL Technology ApS, Haldor Topsoes Alle 1, 2800 Kongens Lyngby, Denmark received on 18.05.2022, at 12:03 was not opened, but on 1 June 2022 was returned to the bidder, in accordance with item 27.2 of the ITB of the Bidding documents, since on 30.05.2022, at 10:27 am, this bidder submitted to the Purchaser a written statement “WITHDRAWAL- IOP/58-2021/RD- Procurement of Equipment for BioSense Institute in Novi Sad, Serbia, Lot 6 Nanoimprint lithography submitted on 18.05.2022, at 12:03.

Upon completion of the public opening of tenders, in the period from 30 May 2022. to 30 August 2022, the Commission performed the procedure of review and expert evaluation of the tenders which were submitted in a timely manner. Evaluation was done in accordance with relevant provisions of the Bidding Documents, Section I – Instructions to bidders - Evaluation and comparison of bids, as well as the Section III - Evaluation and Qualification Criteria and the following was determined.

Section I - Instructions to bidders, Evaluation and comparison of bids, clause 30. Responsiveness of the Bids, sub-clause (30.2) defines that a substantially responsive - adequate bid is one that meets the requirements of the Bidding Documents without material deviation, reservation, or omission. A material deviation, reservation, or omission is one that:

- (a) affects in any substantial way the scope, quality, or performance of the Goods and Related Services specified in the Contract; or
- (b) limits in any substantial way, inconsistent with the Bidding Documents, the Purchaser's rights or the Bidder's obligations under the Contract; or
- (c) if rectified would unfairly affect the competitive position of other bidders presenting substantially responsive bids.

Section I - Instructions to bidders, Evaluation and comparison of the Bids, clause 30. Responsiveness of Bids, sub-clause (30.3) defines that if a bid is not substantially responsive to the Bidding Documents, it shall be rejected by the Purchaser and may not subsequently be made responsive by the Bidder by correction of the material deviation, reservation, or omission.

Section I - Instructions to bidders, Evaluation and comparison of the Bids, sub-clause (32.2) Preliminary Examination of Bids defines that the Purchaser shall confirm that the following documents and information have been provided in the Bid. If any of these documents or information is missing, the offer shall be rejected:

- (a) Bid Submission Form, in accordance with ITB Sub-Clause 12.1;
- (b) Price Schedules, in accordance with ITB Sub-Clause 12.2;
- (c) Bid Security or Bid Securing Declaration, in accordance with ITB Clause 21, if applicable;
- (d) Technical Specification Form (Table) as per Schedule VI, Schedule of Requirements for the goods offered.

In Section I - Instructions to bidders, Examination of Terms and Conditions; Technical Evaluation, article 33.1 and 33.2 it is foreseen that the Purchaser shall examine the Bid to confirm that all terms and conditions specified in the GCC and the SCC have been accepted by the Bidder without any material deviation or reservation. The Purchaser shall evaluate the technical aspects of the Bid submitted in accordance with ITB Clause 18, to confirm that all requirements specified in Section VI, Schedule of Requirements of the Bidding Documents have been met without any material deviation or reservation.

If, after the examination of the terms and conditions and the technical evaluation, the Purchaser determines that the Bid is not substantially responsive in accordance with ITB Clause 30, it shall reject the Bid.

Section I - Instructions to bidders, Evaluation and comparison of the Bids, clause 31. Nonconformities, Errors and Omissions, sub-clause (31.1) defines that provided that a Bid is substantially responsive, the Purchaser may waive any non-conformities or omissions in the Bid that do not constitute a material deviation and sub-clause (31.2) defines that provided that a bid is substantially responsive, the Purchaser may request that the Bidder submit the necessary information or documentation, within a reasonable period of time, to rectify nonmaterial nonconformities or omissions in the bid related to documentation requirements.

Section I - Instructions to bidders, Evaluation and comparison of the Bids, clause 37.1 Postqualification, defines that the Purchaser shall determine to its satisfaction whether the Bidder that is selected as having submitted the lowest evaluated bid and substantially responsive bid is qualified to perform the Contract satisfactorily.
